A newsletter of the missionary arm of the Traditional Anglican Communion

FEBRUARY 2019

A Quick Report on the IAF

LET'S begin the new year with a prayer for missions: "O God, who hast made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on the face of the whole earth, and didst send thy blessed Son to preach peace to them who are far off and to them that are nigh; Grant that all men everywhere may seek after thee and find thee. Bring the nations into thy fold, pour out thy Spirit upon all flesh, and hasten thy kingdom; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen." From the 1928 Book of Common Prayer.

Thanks to everyone who has helped keep our Fellowship growing and filling a need in so many different places around the world.

Many thanks to Fr. Glenn Galenkamp, St. Barnabas Traditional Anglican Church, Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Canada, for his help in formatting this newsletter.

God bless,

Erv Lischke, Executive Director

Note.....The ecclesiastical reference book, Ritual Notes, 11th ed., is still available. ### Letter from the President of the Board

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is my privilege, as President of the Board of Directors of the International Anglican Fellowship, to send you this annual message.

The IAF has had a busy and very successful year. We have served the missionary work of the Traditional Anglican Communion in very important and necessary ways.

The IAF is supported by the faithful generosity of parishes, clergymen and lay people throughout the world. We give thanks for all who provide the necessary funds in the service of God's holy church.

All clergy and many lay members of the church say the daily office. Prayer is a vital part of our lives as Christians. Clergymen are required to pray the daily office of Morning and Evening Prayer, focusing their hearts and minds while observing the Anglican way of prayer. While many of us say the daily office in parish churches, at times we find ourselves travelling. How many times do we say the office in hotel rooms or conference rooms or even out of doors?

Wherever we find ourselves, the quiet and often solitary life of prayer continues.

In a similar way, the very tangible life of the IAF continues. Often quietly and through the prayerful giving of Sustaining Members and friends, we are able to provide support for the wide ranging missionary activity of God's church. As Christians, we are called to prayer. As Christians, we are called to charity. These are inseparably linked in God's call to us.

*Faithfully in Christ,
The Most Rev. Brian Marsh, President*

A Partnership at Work

Last summer the IAF, the Cathedral Church of Saint John the Evangelist (ACCC), and members of the Diocese of the West (ACA) joined forces to help provide a little relief with three shipments of non-perishable food to our brothers and sisters at St. Mary's Anglican Church in the beleaguered country of Venezuela. The first totalled 160 pounds and was sent by air from Toronto, Canada in August of 2018. It was coordinated and funded by the Cathedral Church of Saint John the Evangelist in Victoria, British Columbia who also sent a second shipment totalling 320 pounds in January of 2019. The third, weighing 240 pounds, was sponsored by the IAF and the Diocese of the West. It was sent by sea from Los Angeles, California and successfully arrived in Caracas. A total of 720 pounds of foodstuffs was shipped. If the political situation permits, a follow-on shipment is planned for early this year.

St. Mary's Anglican Church, Caracas, Venezuela

Judy Creel, Darlene Peacock, and Tere Caicedo packing boxes for the shipment from Los Angeles

Dear Judy Creel and Darlene Peacock,

On behalf of the members of St. Mary's, I would like to thank you for the care package you graciously sent us. It was shared among the members of the congregation, office secretary, lay people and clergy.

It is in these dire times that the love and care of Christ for us is seen through others. Once more, our heartfelt thanks.

Rubena, Vestry Member, St. Mary's Anglican Church Caracas, Venezuela

Current Projects

CURRENTLY, the Fellowship is providing financial support for seven missionary projects. All of these involve missionary efforts for clergy and churches that are members of the Traditional Anglican Communion (TAC).

Traditional Anglo-Catholic Latin American Province (TACLAP)

Based in Guatemala, Bishop Ruben Rodriguez, despite ill health, continues to travel extensively throughout Guatemala and other countries in Central America, training and mentoring new priests, coordinating church-related activities for children, conducting mass, confirming new church members, and coordinating construction of new church buildings. Bishop Rodriguez has been serving that part of the world for over 28 years.

Bishop Rodriguez at the Portal de Belen Mission in Columbia

The TACLAP contains approximately forty congregations. The vast majority of congregants are extremely poor and they place a great deal of faith in the church.

Bishop Rodriguez with a few of the local musicians

The IAF helps out with a monthly grant to Bishop Rodriguez. Part of this grant helps pay for the bishop's essential medications, the remainder supports his clerical efforts and ministry.

Continuing Anglican Communion in Zambia (CACZ)

Bishop Andrew Mukuyamba is the ecclesiastical leader of this Diocese and is also the sponsor for the IAF project. Headquartered in Lusaka, Zambia, the Diocese contains 19 congregations averaging 150 members each. Supporting an organization of that size and geographic dispersement with 5 priests and 3 deacons in a country suffering from widespread poverty must be quite a challenge.

Yet Bishop Mukuyamba presses on by continuing to build new churches, repair and maintain older ones, while supplying clergy with the sacramental necessities.

Father Bernard Banda (centre) with congregants of Msoro

Women's Fellowship renewal of vows 2018

BASIC Youth Conference

A Note from Bishop Mukuyamba:

We are the Continuing Anglican Communion in Zambia (C.A.C.Z.). A fellowship committed to continuing in the Christian faith which our fathers had and practised. We have vowed never to compromise the Word of God in any way. Our Parishes are found in Eastern, Central, and Lusaka Province. We belong to the Traditional Anglican Communion worldwide together with similar Dioceses in South Africa, Zimbabwe, Botswana, Mozambique, Japan, Canada, United States of America, Australia, England, South America, and the Torres Strait. Our leadership is dynamic, responsible, hard-working and committed to pursuing great things and excellence. Our vision is to be a people of God's presence in the world and to have a church that demonstrates strong faith in God. Our mission is to defend the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, to uphold the catholic Faith and Doctrine, and to build a vibrant church for the future based on credible leadership.

Girl's Brigade enrollment and re-dedication

Boy's Brigade enrollment and re-dedication

"It felt good being baptized. When the water was sliding down my head on to my face, it was cold but I liked it. My siblings (Sali, Luka and Belita) were baptized too. I am happy to be baptized and now I know God is by my side." Suwilanji, 12yrs Old.

The Anglican Church in India (ACI)

For many decades, Indian Christians and followers of other non-Hindu religious beliefs have been marginalized and even physically attacked by members of a strong Hindu nationalist movement. Violence has increased dramatically during the last decade and has included the burning of churches, forced “re-conversions” to Hinduism, bomb threats, distribution of threatening literature, burning of Bibles, destruction of property at Christian schools, colleges, and cemeteries, and the murder of priests and other Christian workers. Through all of this discord, Archbishop Samuel Prakash, Metropolitan of the ACI, works to keep a Christian presence alive and functioning. The IAF provides a monthly missionary grant to Archbishop Prakash to assist him in his efforts. Funding provides scholarships for Christian students in their primary classes, for families in need, and also helps fund an annual youth camp.

The ACI began its support program, “Come Join Hands for the Poor and Needy”, in 2014. Since that time, it has awarded scholarships and provided financial assistance and clothes to many children. During 2018, much needed items such as beds, mattresses, bed sheets, slippers, school shoes, sewing machines, folding chairs, room heaters, clothes and toys, among other things were distributed. Contributions from the IAF helped to fund this project.

The Anglican Church in Southern Africa

Bishop Michael Gill continues to guide the Church in Southern Africa as new churches are planted and congregations grow. He recently shared these comments:

2018 was a fantastic year in terms of real growth and stability. We are making enormous progress and our people are excited about their church. It is quite exhausting trying to keep up with what's happening. Thank you to the supporters of the IAF. You can be assured of real use and real growth...we truly are a "church on the move" out here.

VISIT TO EASTERN CAPE REGION BY BISHOP WELLINGTON MURINDA

In July/August, Bishop Wellington Murinda spent a month in the Eastern Cape Region, working mostly in the rural areas to build up their communities and encourage their leadership. He also assisted Bishop Gill a great deal in many confirmations in the parishes of the region.

His visits were particularly appreciated by the parishes of St Monica, Butterworth and St Thomas, Mtentu, where Bishop Murinda spent a good deal of his time, cementing relationships with local traditional leaders and building up the laity in those parishes. We praise God for his ministry amongst us and I urge you to keep all the leadership of the TAC in your constant prayers and intercessions.

Diocese of Puerto Rico and the Caribbean

The Anglican missionary efforts in the Dominican Republic, under the able leadership of Bishop Juan Garcia, have taken root and are growing. For the last six years, the IAF has been actively involved by providing a portion of the financial support necessary to sustain these missions. Here is Bishop Garcia's update:

The missionary work in the Dominican Republic continues under the care of Father Fanfi Antonio Dominguez. Father Fanfi has a family of 5 and works for the Water Authority in the Dominican Republic. He serves two missions: Our Lady of Carmen and San Miguel (Saint Michael).

These two missions are far apart. He goes to Our Lady of Carmen in the morning and in the afternoon to Saint Michael. He uses public transportation to commute from one place to the other because he doesn't have a car. Saint Miguel is a mission basically composed of Haitian immigrants in the Dominican Republic, very poor areas. Your contributions to support this work have been key to the success of our efforts. Without it, it would have been impossible. Thank you very much for your help, support, and contributions.

Bishop Juan Garcia

The devastation caused by Hurricane Maria reached into what had previously been normal activities....such as attending school and having the supplies necessary for schoolwork. The Fellowship provided funding to purchase these supplies so that the younger members of Fr. Fanfi's flock are equipped for the classroom.

Sun Star Mission Kyle, South Dakota, USA

The IAF and the Diocese of the Missouri Valley (DMV) supported this mission in the Lakota Sioux nation for several years until it closed. Father David McCready, rector of St. Francis of Assisi Anglican Church in Estes Park, Colorado, has taken the lead in re-establishing the mission. Both the DMV and the IAF are providing financial support. The Fellowship has assumed responsibility for the mission's monthly electric bill.

The Sun Star Mission

Last year, many people volunteered time and energy in making much needed repairs to the church building. The work continues....

Providence Anglican Church in Indonesia

Father James Long has started a mission, the Providence Anglican Church (PAC), in Jakarta, Indonesia. Currently, it is under the episcopal authority of Bishop Brian Marsh and the Anglican Church in America. Father James is expanding the reach of his ministry into other parts of Indonesia. These photos show the results of his efforts in Karawaci, Indonesia.

Fr. James Long and Family

A message from Fr. James to the IAF...

Thank you for your partnership in the Great Commission. Our current ministry includes a Saturday Evensong in Karawaci that has grown to include a number of university students who are very helpful in every way. We have been loaned the use of a small mansion there for the next three years.

Small mansion on loan to the PAC

Small mansion on loan to the PAC

It can hold 150 people on the upper dias and perhaps 200 on the main floor. Air conditioning will be our great challenge. We rented air conditioning units for our Christmas events.

These [above] pictures are from our Christmas outreach. Our JoyCare families were asked to invite one additional refugee family. We told the Christmas story, sang the "First Noel," had the requisite performances by the JoyCare families as well as testimonials from refugees. Following dinner, we distributed care packages to 50 needy families. Look closely and you will see that many Muslim families attended. It was quite something to hear their hearty salutations of "Merry Christmas."

"Regulars" from Iran & Afghanistan

Posing by the Christmas tree are some of our "regulars" from Iran and Afghanistan along with a new friend from Sri Lanka. The young man in the middle (wearing a necktie) is Zawli, who is considering baptism. Doing that is akin to crossing the Rubicon for Afghani men...a reconciliation with heaven and an alienation from their friends on earth that is very costly.

Carols and Lessons

Sandy, JoyCare Director

She has 15 refugee children enrolled and three refugee young adults as volunteer staff. There are many more who want to join, especially since Christmas, but we have no bursaries for them. Please pray God will provide for that.

There is so much more to say but for now, thank you. The gifts of our Anglican friends at home have greatly encouraged us and your prayers are being answered. The good news is being preached to the poor---in the mansions of the rich.

*In Christ,
James*

Father James has assumed a brave task in a complicated part of the world. We wish him Godspeed with his efforts. The IAF will be in continual contact and stands ready to help out wherever possible. More information about the PAC can be found at: www.sams-usa.org

The Sustaining Member and Steward Programs Sustaining Members

THE IAF Sustaining Member program was begun in 2012 as a tool to formally recognize those churches and individuals that support the Fellowship on a recurring basis. For example, if one of the line items in a church budget contains a donation to the IAF, that church is eligible to become a Sustaining Member. Similarly, individuals or families who desire to provide support on a regular basis can be recognized as Sustaining Members.

This program helps to give the IAF Board of Directors an idea of how to plan distribution of donated funds for TAC missionary projects and to target those projects that are most in need. As a token of appreciation, Sustaining Members are presented with a wall plaque (shown below)...a tangible example of commitment and caring.

AS of February 2019, the following churches, families, and individuals are a part of our Sustaining Member family. Many thanks for your active and continuing participation in support of the IAF missionary projects:

Spotlight on a Sustaining Member

Ery Lischke, IAF Executive Director, with the Reverend Robert and Elizabeth Aird at their home in Chumleigh, Devon, England

From Rev Aird:

I was born and lived in the very outskirts of London (in Upminster Essex). My parents – very good ones – were only nominally Christian and although my brother and sister were sent to Sunday school and church, it was primarily to give Mum and Dad time off.

During the beginning of the war, I was evacuated to Gloucestershire and the war had no real impact on me.

We returned to London in 1943 in time for the mini-blitz doodle bugs and V2 rockets but, where we were, we were not that greatly affected.

My own “conversion” occurred when I was 15 when – quite suddenly and unexpectedly, I was convinced God was important and have at the least, attended church ever since.

When I completed school and, after two years in the National Service where I was trained as a telecommunications mechanic, I went to college and gained my degree in Civil Engineering. I was now more active in the Church, being a Sunday School teacher and a member of the Parochial Church Council.

It was in 1958 that I started courting Elizabeth and we married in 1960. Since then, she has been a huge supporter and encourager in everything we have done.

I was an Associate and then a full member of the Institution of Civil Engineers. Along the way, I changed professions and began teaching math.

Elizabeth, myself, and our three sons moved to the West Country where I continued teaching math as head of the local Math Department.

It was during this time that our Vicar asked me to consider becoming a Reader. I agreed and, for several years, I was very active taking services or preaching virtually every week. When our new Vicar approached me in 1975 to ask if I would consider becoming ordained, I was immediately convinced that this would be the right thing to do. After a two year “Geriatric” General Ordination Course, I was ordained Deacon in 1977, appointed Curate in Burnham on Sea, and then priested in 1978.

I served at St Peter's in Taunton until 1987 and became Rector of All Saints Dulverton Somerset where I stayed until 1994. Eventually, the Church of England became too liberal for my comfort so I resigned and, with help from Bp Louis Falk, established a new parish in Dulverton...St Phillip and St James, the first service being held on May 1, 1994. After more than 20 years we have still have a small but very faithful community. Although we do not know what the future holds, so long as we try to do what is right and leave to Him to sort things out, as St Julian of Norwich once said, "All will be well, and all will be well, and all will be very well."

Stewards

THE IAF Steward program has been established as a management tool and communication link between the Board of Directors (specifically, the Executive Director) and members of various TAC churches and organizations. Working with the IAF Executive Director, Stewards (who are volunteers) will assist the Board by maintaining contact with and funnelling IAF related information to the churches and individuals in their home dioceses. This will include distribution of newsletters, collection of donated funds, and information concerning the IAF mission and planning goals. They will also field questions regarding IAF operations and will help identify candidates for the Sustaining Member Program.

Currently, we are pleased to have five active Stewards and are looking for volunteers to take the lead in Canada and the United Kingdom:

- The Very Rev. Merrill Perkins, Diocese of the Northeast, ACA, USA
- Darlene Peacock, Diocese of the West, ACA, USA
- Sarah Albert, Diocese of the Missouri Valley, ACA, USA
- Rosa Halbert, Diocese of the Eastern United States, ACA, USA
- The Traditional Anglican Church in Britain CURRENTLY VACANT
- Jenny Gill, Johannesburg, South Africa, Diocese of Pretoria and South Africa
- Anglican Catholic Church of Canada CURRENTLY VACANT

Anyone interested in becoming active in the IAF Steward Program should contact Erv Lischke in Montana, USA, at: 406-642-3085 or electronically at:

Spotlight on a Steward

The Very Reverend Merrill Perkins

The Very Reverend Merrill Raymond Perkins was born on July 6, 1956, in Austin, Minnesota, the first child of Raymond and Nancy (Merrill) Perkins. When he was age 2, the young family moved to Old Saybrook, Connecticut, where his maternal grandfather, the Reverend Edward R. Merrill, was Rector of Grace Episcopal Church.

Father Perkins was educated in the Old Saybrook Public School system, also attended Xavier High School in Middletown, Connecticut, from whence he graduated on June 4, 1974. Two years later, he was hired on with Amtrak in New Haven, Connecticut. During his 40-plus year career there, he worked at a variety of clerical positions, including Locomotive Dispatcher, Ticket Clerk/Agent, Ticket Receiver, and Drawbridge Tender. He retired from Amtrak on December 29, 2016.

On May 17, 1980, he was wed to Jennifer Jane Wood of Poughkeepsie, New York. They have two children, John and Sarah, who both reside in the area of Chattanooga, Tennessee. Jennifer has been severely afflicted with Multiple Sclerosis for many years, and has been in nursing care for over 13 years.

Father Perkins was baptized by his grandfather in Minnesota, and was raised in the Episcopal Church. A lifelong and active churchman, he committed to the Anglican Church in America (ACA) while an observer at the Diocese of the Northeast (DNE) Synod in Conway, New Hampshire, on October 2, 2009.

Five weeks later, he was accepted as a Postulant for Holy Orders, and in December of that year commenced studies in the Diaconal Track at Logos House of Theological Studies. He was licensed as a Lay Reader in the DNE on April 30, 2010 and in late May was asked by Bishop Brian Marsh to resume services as a Lay Missioner at St. Matthias Church in Mystic, Connecticut.

A few previous congregants began to attend again, and several new folks joined the community. On July 16, 2011, he was made a Deacon at St. Matthias Church, and was ordained a Priest on December 20, 2014.

Father Perkins' gift for administration have been recognized following his organization of the DNE Synods held in Mystic in 2013 and 2016, and the House of Bishops and Executive Council meetings held in Mystic in September 2015. At the 2013 DNE Synod, the then Deacon Perkins, was elected to the Diocesan Standing Committee, on which he still serves. In September of 2015 he was asked to assume the duties of convening the DNE Clericus retreats. In July of 2016 he was asked to serve as Diocesan Steward for the International Anglican Fellowship. In March of 2017 he was appointed to fill a Clerical vacancy on the ACA Executive Council, and was elected to a 3-year term in October of that year. Most recently, he was appointed as Area Dean in the DNE, covering Southern New England and Eastern New York State. Many hats the good Reverend wears, all in joyful service to our Lord Jesus Christ and His Church!

A New Way to Contribute AmazonSmile

Amazon.com has implemented a new program designed to support qualified non-profit charitable organizations....like the IAF. If you shop online, simply logon to smile.amazon.com. Once on that website, you can choose from millions of products that are eligible for the donation program. This service is free and product costs are the same as those available from Amazon.com. The difference is that the AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of your purchase price to the IAF (or to any other qualified charity you may wish to support). For instance, if you were to spend $50 USD on smile.amazon.com and designate the IAF as your charity of choice, the Amazon Foundation would contribute 50 cents to our Fellowship. It does not sound like much but, over time it can add up. There are two ways to access the Fellowship on AmazonSmile:

1. Log onto smile.amazon.com/ch/57-0890899,

2. Log onto smile.amazon.com and then search for "International Anglican Fellowship."
