BUILDING CHURCHES — EQUIPPING MINISTRY
SERVING GOD'S PEOPLE

THE INTERNATIONAL ANGLICAN FELLOWSHIP—SPRING 2022

*The Very Rev'd Edward H. Ihde
Executive Director of the IAF*

Dear Friends and Supporters,

This edition of the IAF newsletter comes to you with every good wish for a Holy Lent and a Joyous Eastertide.

The Year 2021, now past was a difficult one for all of us, both in our church and in the world. The COVID pandemic continued to unleash its fury on many millions across the face of the earth, and regretfully, many succumbed to its devastating effects.

But, Praise be to God, we, as a Church of Christ, managed to survive this terrible time; many of us becoming remarkably stronger, both physically and spiritually, because of it.

The International Anglican Fellowship continued its work unabated over the course of last year and for that we give thanks, both to God, and to all those who supported this ministry and mission around the globe, both in time and in treasure.

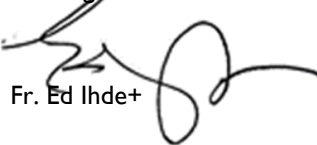

This first issue of 2022 brings to you several portraits in the form of photos of our Church reflected in the faces of the many people who make up the Traditional Anglican Church, both here at home and in far off places. The TAC is a worldwide Community of Churches set within a worldwide Community of Nations. But it is the people of God, believers in Christ, who give our individual churches and our individual countries the faith and vitality needed to face an unknown future that lies ahead in the years to come.

Within these pages you will see the faces of believers, everywhere, as they celebrate the risen Christ in their lives, both in word and deed. It is people helping people that this issue is all about, and it is the mission of the IAF to help raise the financial assistance needed to make these kinds of events happen.

The IAF is powerless to do anything on its own without the support of our many friends. So, if you can, please help assist the IAF either financially or prayerfully, or both, as we continue the Mission of the IAF in the name of Jesus Christ our Savior.

Blessings everyone!

WELCOME NEWS FROM AUSTRALIA

Dear Fr Ed,

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus!

I am the parish priest of the parishes of St Andrew and St Peter. St Andrew's worships at Falls Farm in Lesmurdie, a suburb of the City of Kalamunda. St Peter's worships at the Scout Hall, Brentwood, a suburb of the City of Melville. Both cities fall within the metropolitan area of the City of Perth. Though we are (officially) known as The Traditional Anglican Church in Western Australia, we are parishes of the Anglican Catholic Church in Australia; our bishop is Bishop David Robarts. At their respective recent Annual General Meetings, each parish resolved to direct its outreach to the IAF, for distribution to such charitable projects of the TAC as the IAF may decide. It is envisaged that contributions will be made at the end of December and June. Unfortunately, they will not be of any great magnitude, as we are but small in number. I look forward to hearing from you. In His service, Brian+

Greetings to all the brothers from me and the Anglican Church of India,

As we all celebrated the birthday of our Lord Jesus Christ and now in the coming month we will enter into Lent Days. On this occasion, I want to share something with you all.

In our Christian faith, the Bible teaches us all good things and also tells us about our salvation. Similarly, in the Ten Commandments also it is clearly told that how we have to live our life. Conversely, in many of our Christian brothers, more importance is given to worldly attachment than to God. Due to which they remain Christian in name. As it is written in James 1:26 "If anyone thinks that he is righteous and does not restrain his tongue, but deceives his heart, the person's righteousness is worthless." Therefore keep yourselves dear, in Christ so that you may have eternal life.

Everything Depends on Faith. Enter this holy days of Lent with faith and ask God to face all the trials that come before us in this world. If we ask God through our Lord Jesus Christ by prayer and faith, then He rises us from all our difficulties and raises us in this world with a new energy. In John 10:27-28 is written "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. And I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and No one will snatch them from my hand." And people seeing this unwavering faith of ours will be able to adopt Lord Jesus in their lives and take themselves on the path of eternal life.

So, my dear brothers and sisters, let us all celebrate this holy Lent by purifying ourselves mentally, spiritually and physically and pray with fasting, and also for all those who are in need to help us and all those who turn to God. May God give us such strength that we can help the needy with both hands.

I thank Almighty God that with his compassion and help, we are moving forward in India to safely this dreadful disease and also Christmas was celebrated with great enthusiasm in different dioceses of India. Archbishop Samuel Peter Prakash, Metropolitan of India celebrated Christmas with Christians in various Dioceses. He went to the parishes and distribute Christmas gifts and listened to the problems of the people and prayed for them and did whatever possible help was possible.

Archbishop Samuel Prakash has announced to start a free Tuition Center in St. Thomas Church Parish which is in the Diocese of Lucknow, in which the very poor children of that province who are financially very weak will be able to study and they will also be made aware about their health.

Along with this, an intermediate school has also been announced to start there, so that our Christian children can get good education and the youth who are young can get a good job through this school.

The target has been set to start the free Tuition Center from April 2022. In which the Rev. Daniel Masih of St. Thomas Church and the Assistant Pastor Rev. Sanjay Singh has been given the responsibility.

I request to all of you that these two projects of the Anglican Church will benefit our Christian society as well as other sections, please pray for this and if possible, help financially as well.

Free tuition center is also to be started by the Anglican Church in many more parishes which include Gonda Parish, Gorakhpur Parish and Vikasnagar Parish.

At the end, I would like to thank our Leader in Christ Archbishop Shane B. Janzen Primate, Traditional Anglican Communion, Archbishop Michael Gill Secretary Traditional Anglican Communion and The Very Rev'd Edward H. Ihde Director International Anglican Fellowship for helping the Anglican Church of India from time to time. And I also pray for them to be empowered to make such wisdom and decisions to fulfill the responsibilities given to them by being in God.

With these words May God keep you all safe.

Brief historical review: Who we are and where we come from.....

Beginning with the arrival of the British Legion supporting the process in the War of Independence in Venezuela, in the year 1832, it was necessary to build a cemetery and a Temple for the Anglican and English-speaking Catholic descendants. Later with the corresponding diplomatic agreements through The British Consul to the new Venezuelan Republic, Sir Robert Ker Porter, the cemetery and a chapel was built, of which a portrait is preserved and all this was located in Caracas and La Guaira. At the same time more and more English speaking migrants who fell in love with these lands, its climate, its people, kept coming to this country.. There is a commemorative tombstone to this first Clergy Chaplain who settled in Caracas at the beginning of the 20th century, for due spiritual attention, since previously they were only itinerants who came sporadically. In the same way, some sheets of stones with some engravings that identified those historical places are preserved in our Temple.

It has been already 190 years of the foundation of St. Mary's Cathedral Church, a historic, autonomous and expatriate Anglican congregation, existing in Caracas, Venezuela. Through all these years, the Church has moved 3 times to different locations, motivated by the fact that the first 2 were too small for the number of parishioners who attended the Church.

The Church at the present:

It is the temple where the traditional Anglican congregation congregates, located in Colinas de San Román, Caracas. Its construction began in April 1961, when laying the foundation stone, and it was inaugurated in May 1962; This is because the English-speaking community was growing, and in view of the city's growth, and the economic boom that Venezuela had at the time, after the fruits of the 1950s, the idea of building a larger building adapted to the new requirements of the growing community was raised. The vast majority of English-speaking diplomatic representations, starting with the United Kingdom, the United States, Canada, Trinidad and Tobago, Barbados, among others, they used to be frequently parishioners maintaining frequently contact with the church. Even, every November 11 (or some Sunday close to that date) they gather in this temple for the "Remembrance" or War Veteran's Day, in commemoration of all those who have fought in a war conflict.

Now during these last 15 years and today because of the political situation, under the guidelines of the leftist tendencies and an authoritarian system, where all these Embassies, Consulates and Diplomats have been withdrawn from Venezuela, our situation has been drastically affected since the number of parishioners who attended and collaborated in all the activities of the Church are no longer in Venezuela, greatly reducing the number of parishioner.

Since 2016 it has been incardinated with the Traditional Anglican Church (TAC). Now Only in terms of the church as a Religious Institution our organization chart is as follow:

1. Traditional Anglican Church (worldwide) governed by the Primate and College of Bishops (TAC), presiding by The Reverend Archbishop Shane B. Janzen, OSG, DD, Primate of the Traditional Anglican Church, Metropolitan of The Anglican Catholic Church of Canada and Bishop Ordinary of The Diocese of Canada West.

2. Province of Latin America of the Traditional Anglican Church (TACLAP), presiding by The Right Reverend Bishop Ruben Rodriguez.
3. Episcopal Visitor for The Anglican Church of Caracas ("Saint Mary's Cathedral"), The Reverend Bishop Juan B. Garcia Germain.
4. Deacon of The Anglican Church of Caracas ("Saint Mary's Cathedral"): Deacon Freddy Liendo.

Our Activities at the moment:

As a result of the Covid-19 Pandemic, all the Churches in this country were closed to the public by government instructions, that is, from March 2020 to October 2021, for which we have been practically paralyzed, serving the parishioners through of video conference. Currently, since December 1, 2021, these restrictions have been lifted, and we have returned again to celebrate Sunday masses, baptisms, and marriages, complying with the provisions recommended by Covid-19, such as the face mask and distancing, since we are going through the third variant of this pandemic, which seems not to end. We currently have 12 English-speaking parishioners, plus 13 from the community in Spanish.

A Report from Bali

From The Rev'd James Long

ACA Missionary to Indonesia and Bali

Baptisms are always exciting times for mission churches because it is not merely the babies of the covenant community going under the water, but also teens and adults who have come to know our Lord Jesus Christ as their Savior. Of the three PAC baptisms back around Christmas, two were adults and one was the child of one of these. Providence Anglican Church's national pastor Aan Hermawan was able to conduct the services in Bali and Jakarta in my absence. Our churches there are not meeting regularly for in-person worship due to the ongoing plague of Covid, which is surging again as I write, but for our Bali group Aan was able to hold both the baptism service and an evening prayer. One of the women baptized was of Indonesian nobility. Raden (lady) Risya was married to Gareth, a lapsed "Anglican" when God drew her to himself, and she and her son Ethan received the grace of the Sacrament. Please pray for their whole family to walk now in God's way together.

Tonight (for us) but their tomorrow (Feb. 27) at 3:00 pm, our next round of baptisms, this time of a family who came to PAC via the internet. Their story is strange but wonderful. Stephen, a cradle Anglican born into the Scottish Episcopal Church, had wandered into socialism during his college days in Scotland and gone far from Christ. He wound up eventually as an international teacher in Indonesia, where he married into a Java Muslim family. As the responsibility of parenthood settled upon him with the birth of his son Edmond, his conscience was troubled. He knew it was his duty to lead the family in God's ways, and he began working his way back toward the way of truth. On a visit home to Scotland, his wife Sari was overwhelmed with a sense of the presence of God as she stood inside or outside of a local church---that detail escapes me---and she and Stephen determined to attend there that Lord's Day. When they arrived, however, they found they had taken down the wrong service time and were too late. There was, they were informed, another parish just up the way, whose service had not yet begun, and off they scrambled. Ignorant of custom, Sari went forward to receive the Holy Communion, and this is where it gets interesting, for the priest asked no questions, and placed the bread in her hand. She was caught up in a kind of spiritual reverie at this moment, overwhelmed that a priest of the realm would serve her in this way, and something clicked spiritually. As a result, when she and Stephen returned to Indonesia and he found PAC online, she began to attend both morning and evening prayer with him. Nanci began to meet with her by phone as well, and not too long thereafter we heard the news from Pastor Aan that She and her son Edmond were preparing for baptism. God works in mysterious ways, his wonders to perform.

One disappointment is that a young Muslim man who had gone through catechesis, decided at the last moment not to go through with baptism at this time. Please pray for Reinhard, that God will be patient and lead him also to the water, and then to his table too.

We praise God for the support of the IAF both in finances and in prayer. I am scheduled to return to Indonesia at the end of this month to secure a new visa which has finally come through. As the Indonesian schools are all closed again, and as our churches are not meeting, and our apartment is lost, we do not anticipate a quick return to "on the ground" service there just yet, but the visa is an important step in that direction, and we covet the prayers of the churches as we continue to serve online, and as the reopening of the learning lab ministry is now set up, staffed, and scheduled to reopen.

The Sustaining Member and Steward Programs

Sustaining Members

The IAF Sustaining Member program was begun in 2012 as a tool to formally recognize those churches and individuals that support the Fellowship on a recurring basis. For example, if one of the line items in a church budget contains a donation to the IAF, that church is eligible to become a Sustaining Member. Similarly, individuals or families who desire to provide support on a regular basis can be recognized as Sustaining Members.

This program helps to give the IAF Board of Directors an idea of how to plan distribution of donated funds for TAC missionary projects and to target those projects that are most in need. As a token of appreciation, Sustaining Members are presented with a wall plaque (shown to the right) . . . a tangible example of commitment and caring.

As of January 2022, the following churches, families, and individuals are a part of our Sustaining Member family.

Spot light on Sustaining members

Holy Cross Anglican Church

On the 2nd Week of Christmas, Holy Cross Anglican Church, Webster, NY (DNE) became the very first Church Congregation of the New Year to become a sustaining member of the International Anglican Fellowship. Over the past year, the congregation opened their undercroft to a local construction engineering firm, on a rental basis, for needed office space. The monthly proceeds from the endeavor were tithed by the vestry in part to the IAF and part to Fr. Long's Mission to Indonesia.

Fr. Edward Ihde, Executive Director of the IAF, made the trip to Holy Cross to present the congregation with a sustaining member plaque. Pictured is Fr. Ihde awarding the plaque to The Rev. Dr. Thomas Stone, Rector on behalf of the Holy Cross family.

The IAF Board of Directors applauds this congregation's efforts for their support of the worldwide Mission of the IAF within the Traditional Anglican Church.

If you or your congregation would like to become sustaining members know that the amount of the donation isn't as important as a Monthly, Quarterly or Annual commitment toward the IAF's sustainability. Knowing that a certain amount of funds is expected helps us tremendously.

Stewards

The IAF Steward program has been established as a management tool and communication link between the Board of Directors (specifically, the Executive Director) and members of various TAC churches and organizations. Working with the IAF Executive Director, Stewards (who are volunteers) assist the Board by maintaining contact with and funneling IAF related information to the churches and individuals in their home dioceses. This includes distribution of newsletters, collection of donated funds, and information concerning the IAF mission and planning goals. They also field questions regarding IAF operations and help identify candidates for the Sustaining Member Program. Currently, we are pleased to have seven active Stewards:

The Very Rev. Merrill Perkins, Diocese of the Northeast, ACA

Darlene Peacock, Diocese of the West, ACA

Sarah Albert, Diocese of the Missouri Valley, ACA

Laura Ewald, Diocese of the Eastern United States, ACA

The Rev. Glenn Galenkamp, Diocese of Canada West, ACCC

The Rev. Cn. Doug Nicholson, Diocese of Canada East, ACCC

Jenny Gill, Diocese of Pretoria and South Africa

A New Way to Contribute

AmazonSmile

Amazon.com has implemented a new program designed to support qualified non-profit charitable organizations....like the IAF. If you shop online, simply logon to smile.amazon.com. Once on that website, you can choose from millions of products that are eligible for the donation program. This service is free and product costs are the same as those available from Amazon.com. The difference is that the AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of your purchase price to the IAF. For instance, if you were to spend $50US on smile.amazon.com and designate the IAF as your charity of choice, the Amazon Foundation will contribute 50 cents to our Fellowship. It does not sound like much but, over time it can add up. There are two ways to access the Fellowship on AmazonSmile:

Log onto smile.amazon.com/ch/57-0890899, or

Log onto smile.amazon.com and then search for "International Anglican Fellowship."
